RE: LRB 0951 - charter school requirements

Hi Peter – yes, I think this would just be for instrumentality charters.

I don't think we want to say "equal." I was looking for a word that means "as equal as possible." Any thoughts? I think we could use average, and I think we would want the amount to be the aid + levy per pupil amount (is that "cost"?).

On your last point – I thought about this, as this does seem to get a bit in the way of the school board's duties/responsibilities. However, I also thought that perhaps "employ" could mean that instrumentality charter employees are employees of the district. I think the charter operators want to be able to make hiring decisions, staffing level decisions and determine the employment contract provisions for all of their staff without the board's oversight – can we have them do all of that and the board simply be the hiring-agency-of-record? Do you think this goes too far? If so, could we require the board to make final hiring decisions based upon input from the charter operator, in accordance with criteria and plans put forth by the operator?

Subject: RE: LRB 0951 - charter school requirements

Hi Sara,

A few questions, if you don't mind. In the current draft of LRB-0951, should the restriction apply only to charters that are instrumentalities of the school district?

In item 1, what does "commensurate" mean? Does it mean that the payment must be equal to the district's per pupil spending amount? And I know you asked that "per pupil spending" remain vague, but do you mean the average per pupil cost? (I think that even with the addition of "average," the term will remain vague.) Also, are you making a distinction between cost and spending? In other words, does "spending" include state aid, or only the tax levy?

In item 2, I'm a little confused about personnel decisions. In an instrumentality charter, the school board employs all personnel for the charter school. I think that implies that the school board determines whom to hire. Do you want to change that? If so, in what way? What personnel decisions will be for the school board and what personnel decisions will be for the operator?

Subject: LRB 0951 - charter school requirements

Hi Peter – some additional guidance on this one.

In addition to not imposing current law requirements, the contracts between an instrumentality charter and a school board should:

- 1. Specify a per pupil payment amount to be made to the charter operator that is commensurate with the district's per pupil spending amount in non-charter schools; and
- 2. Provide the charter operator with sole discretion over school budget and expenditures, hiring decisions and personnel policies (subject to current law requirements), curriculum, and professional development activities, except that sole discretion need not be provided where the issues affect health and safety as determined by the school board.

I know that #1 is vague as far as what per pupil spending means, but it has been requested to remain vague.

Thanks!

Current law provides that, unless otherwise explicitly provided, the school code (chapters 115 to 121 of the Wisconsin statutes) does not apply to charter schools. This bill prohibits a school board from imposing on the operator of a charter school any requirement in the school code that does not explicitly apply to charter schools.

DRAFTER'S NOTE FROM THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU

LRB-0951/2dn PG:kjf:rs

January 23, 2013

Sara,

Regarding the employment of personnel for an instrumentally charter school: current law requires the school district to employ all personnel, while this draft grants to the charter school operator sole discretion over the hiring of personnel and over personnel policies. Okay?

I am not familiar with the requirements for participation in the WRS. Based on your request, however, I assume that actual control of employees is unnecessary for the employer and that merely cutting the employee's checks is sufficient. If this is not true, there may be an issue.

Note that current law also provides that nothing in s. 118.40 (7) affects the rights of personnel of an instrumentality charter school to engage in collective bargaining. See also s. 118.40 (7) (ar). I amended this paragraph so that it refers to "this section" in order to ensure that the new provision, granting to the operator sole discretion to hire personnel, is also included in the reference. Okay?

PRIMARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION

Current law provides that, unless otherwise explicitly provided, the school code (chapters 115 to 121 of the Wisconsin statutes) does not apply to charter schools. This bill prohibits a contract between a school board and the operator of a charter school that is an instrumentality of the school district from imposing on the operator any requirement in the school code that does not explicitly apply to charter schools.

The bill also requires that a contract between a school board and the operator of a charter school that is an instrumentality of the school district do all of the following:

- 1. Specify the amount to be paid to the charter school operator for each pupil attending the charter school. The amount must be commensurate with the average per pupil cost for the school district.
- 2. Grant the charter school operator sole discretion over the charter school's budget, curriculum, and professional development activities, and over the hiring of personnel and personnel policies for the charter school, unless a decision in any of these areas affects the health or safety of pupils. The bill does not modify the existing requirement that the school board employ all personnel for a charter school that is an instrumentality of the school district.
